

BRIDGESIDE BOOKS

THE BRIDGE
OVER
TROUBLED
WATERS
PROJECT

“HOW WE ACT AND FEEL IN DIFFICULT TIMES.”

SUMMER 2020

You get ~ Gift Book

You give ~ Work of: Art, Writing, or Media to be shared with the local community

email info@bridgesidebooks.com

For older readers

Another Brooklyn by Jacqueline Woodson - looking back on childhood
Speak by Laurie Halse Anderson - novel & graphic about finding voice
Book Thief by Markus Zusak - in Nazi Germany find comfort in words
Kite Runner by Khaled Hosseini - family and friendship in Afghanistan
The Call of the Wild by Jack London - courage and survive Alaska
The Grapes of Wrath by John Steinbeck - hard times in the Dust Bowl

For middle readers

Unbroken by Laura Hillenbrand (y.a. version) - true survival plane crash
Long Walk to Water by Linda Sue Park - true story enduring hardships
Boy Who Harnessed the Wind by William Kamkwamba - true enterprise
Hatchet by Gary Paulsen - survive alone in the wilderness
El Deafo by Cece Bell - graphic memoir living with deafness
Out of My Mind by Sharon Draper - brilliant mind trapped in a body Insignificant Events in the Life of a Cactus by D. Bowling - struggle
Brown Girl Dreaming by Jacqueline Woodson - poem memoir

For younger readers

The Day you Begin by Jacqueline Woodson - power of voice, friendship
The Dot by Peter Reynolds - discover talent
Tomorrow I'll be Brave by Jessica Hische - fantastic journey
Jabari Jumps by Gaia Cornwall - courage to take a big important leap

INTERESTED? FILL OUT THIS FORM:

TINYURL.COM/YCS3CE4N

THANK YOU DR. RICHARD KATZMAN